Jesus focus on his destination is evident. Having decided to begin his journey to Jerusalem, he enlists the help of others to proclaim his message: not the twelve, but seventy-two (some translations say seventy) whose names are unknown, but who will do what he has been doing. The process continues today. The work of Jesus is carried out by countless people whose names are unknown, but whose lives proclaim the Good news.. Are we among them?

THE MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART
THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (C)
26TH JUNE 2022

SATURDAY 25TH JUNE

Ordinary Sundays resume at a time when the Gospel of Luke tells us about Jesus' life-changing decision to head to Jerusalem. In doing so, he seals his own fate, because he knows that in Jerusalem he will meet his death. His decision is: should he continue the work he has been doing in his miracles? Or should he head to the culmination of his ministry? He chooses the latter, for which he must be resolute.

THE MEMORIAL OF ST IRENAEUS

St Irenaeus (130-200) came from Smyrna, present-day Izmir, Turkey, where the bishop was St Polycarp, one of the last to have known St John, the longest-surviving Apostle. Irenaeus emphasised the importance of the unbroken succession of bishops since the time of the Apostles to guarantee of orthodox teaching. Following the trade routes to southern France he became a missionary at Lyon, now to primatial see of France. He was its second bishop. He was instrumental in undoing the influence of the Gnostic heresy. Tradition says he died a martyr about the year 200.
