THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 16TH JULY 2023

FOODBANK

This week we supported 100 families via our foodbanks. As always we couldn't have done it without your continued support, so thank you all very much. We also must thank Nith Valley eggs, local residents in Burnside who donated items, The City Charitable Trust for ongoing support and a lovely lady who wishes to remain anonymous but who gave us wonderful donations. Special thanks this week to Emile and James who are pupils at St Hilary's Primary. The boys recently made their First Holy Communion and bought items for the foodbank with some of the money they were gifted. I'm sure you will agree that this is just so thoughtful and generous of the young boys. This week we also distributed 7 bicycles to families. This week we are looking for the following items:

Tinned Potatoes, Tinned spaghetti, Tinned veg, T bags, Dried pasta, UHT Milk, toothpaste, shower gel, soap, shampoo and if possible some treats for the many children who come to visit us.

Donations can be left as always at the porch of both churches or in Burnside Butchers.
